To be continued.

Gather your winter fuel.

The oysteR season is at hand.

Fall trade has opened briskly.

Cider mills are grinding lively.

The dust has been well settled by the

This is the season roads and streets

Several nights last week it was cold citizens brought them into requisition.

Mathis & Noe have received a fresh

steck of goods for the fall trade, among which we notice an excellent line of Workmen have began work on the new bridge on Main street which is to span the classic waters of the beautiful

A likely and beautiful specimen of Mr. W. H. Maze, our newly elected

Mr. D. Pence has erected in front day, above the water tank, by western

the 11th, near Limestone depot.

and romantic Turkey creek.

bound evening freight train.

ready-made clothing.

make them passable during the winter.

requent showers during the past week.

For Vice President, WM. H. ENGLISH.

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

OF INDIANA. FOR GOVERNOR:

OF MAURY COUNTY. FOR CONGRESS: R. L. TAYLOR,

Hon. JOHN V. WRIGHT

OF CARTER COUNTY. Electors for the State at Large. character of Garfield and Arthur

JOHN L. T. SNEED, of Shelby, JOHN M. FLEMING, of Knox. Hawkins can't face an honest people and defend the rotten record of his party. He relies on Wilson to elect him.

The Democrat says old Greene will pile up an increased majority over that of 1878 for the mountain boy, Bob Taylor, in Nevember.

Let every Democrat put on his armor and work for the nominee of the party, and we will win a glorious victory, or deserve it.

The Democratic party says coupons shall not be made receivable for taxes. That leaves no standing ground for bolters.

Have Democrats so soon forgotten how the Radicals made them stand off and see the freedman vote from 1865 to 1869? Wright is the only man can beat Hawkins.

THE Republicans are in better spirits in Tennessee than they have been since the white people got free. They are even hoping to have a majority in the Legislature and of electing Horace Maynard to the U. S. Wrote to the Mayor of Scranton, Pa. Senate.

Hawkins declines to divide time threatened by those strikes, fortuwith anybody except his competitors | nately never became matters of polwho must follow him. We don't ities. There was no dispute nor any blame him. It will take him all of partisan excitement concerning the time and the best part of eternity means to be used to put down the to clear up the record of himself and riots, though there was a very gen-

Jay Gould is reported as saying that Arthur is such a dead weight to the Garfield ticket that its election is impossible. He says the Re- to the civil power in Pennsylvania publicans are looking now to the State Legislatures in order to secure a majority in the United States | thus proved, what no intelligent per-Senate. Vain hope. But drowning son has ever doubted, that his course men always catch at straws.

Hawkins is afraid to meet Wright. He knows that Wright would expose his rotten party and rally the Democrats around him. He stands off and lets Wilson make his fight, and he expects to step in and take the office when Wright and Wilson have divided the Democracy. If the Democracy is not insane he will be disappointed, by the success of Wright. Kune, Mayor of Scranton during

Col. John M. Fleming, of Knox- to a World reporter this history of ville, by invitation, addressed the the circumstances under which it instant, who reported the following Hancock and English club of Mor- was written: ristown Tuesday night of last week. The large room at the court house was well filled by members of the which had been summoned by my comclub and other citizens, notably to these of the Sheriff. My posse went among whom, within the bar were, of duty on August 1. On the morning of the second two regiments of State quite a number of ladies. The speech troops arrived, and one the third one or was listened to with marked atten- two companies of regulars. By the 15th tion, frequently eliciting rounds of troops and a regiment of regulars stahearty applause. It was a presentation of the relative merits of Han- be needed. The fact that there were cock and Garfield, and the Repub i- Federal and State troops stationed in can party and its nominee were handled by the eloquent and graceful row commanded the Federal troops, and speaker in a manner peculiarly his information regarding my right to call own-cutting and effective. Col. F. upon his troops as I deemed satisfactospoke from the record and knocked ry. Therefore on the 18th of August I out the center every pop. We up, wrote to General Hancock requesting him to give me such information as to derstand other distinguished speakers from abroad will from time to tion to the Federal troops stationed in time address the club

We have little fear of the election of Wilson. The race is between Wright and Hawkins. The legislature is the place to guard. Let the people see to it that every candidate for this body announces his position in unmistakable language. Let them to Scranton on the application of the ger county, but now of Atlanta, Ga., graded with the greatest care. For refuse to vote for any mum candirefuse to vote for any mum candidates. If a candidate does not come to the Governor and are subject to the Dr. G. W. Lawrence, of Hot Springs, out clear and square and flat footed there. They should not be called upon, for an honest settlement mark him however, until the civil posse and the went to the Warm Springs last Waddown as a Repudiationist in disguise State troops have proved insufficient, nesday, accompanied by his family. and vote against him. Vote for no the assistance of the Federal troops. man who is even tainted with the Savage heresy. Vote the straight legal action in the premises. He has for the present. Very cordially do we been advised on the subject heretofore and is no doubt fully aware of his ducompromise whatever, This course ties under all circumstances. I do not and popular Superintendent of the East Tenn., moved in this matter by advis- office regularly every Tuesday evening. may bring about Democratic defeat wish to embarrass him by giving him any further advice or instructions, directly or indirectly. If he wishes such iting his mother and sister at the Cain must not abandon principle for the sake of a temporary party success.

There are some things a thousand times and temporary party success.

The sake of a temporary pa There are some things a thousand times worse than defeat. We believe the Democraty will accure a majority in the next General Assembly, and we also believe they will effect John of the peace in Scranton (which we will over the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we will truin fur flowed the peace in Scranton (which we are the public and the peace in Scranton (whi he Federal troops were with us Wm. P. Gillenwaters, district elecabout four months. I had no need to call upon them, as the State troops we tors for Hancock and English and ufficient for the purpose. The Federal Garfield and Arthur, addressed the troops, however, had great influence in preserving quiet and in preventing discitizens of Hamblen county at the court house last Thursday. A very espectable number of the voters my calling upon the Federal troops un were present. Rev. Gillenwaters til my own force as Mayor and the State orce was exhausted. All of my posse opened the discussion. We have were indicted for murder on the verdict neither space nor inclination to no of the Coroner's jury, and one of the cases being tried as a test case, all were tice his speech further than to say it consisted in the main of charges against Gen. Hancock and the Democratic party so coarse and false in their nature as to cause many Re-

their party. Col. Vance in his re proval of his Democratic friends.

eral and somewhat clamorous de-down. General Hancock announctions of the army under it as no Republican "statesman," from 1865 to 1880, has ever shown himself to possess. This new letter of Gen. Hancock's was addressed to R. H. Mc-the railroad riots of 1877, who gave

"At the time of the riots, which began on August 1, 1877, I had a posse comitatus composed of thirty-five citizens

tioned at Scranton by Governor Hart-

MILITARY DIVISION OF THE ATLANTIC,
NEW YORK, August 20, 1877.

ton, Pa. "SIR: I have the honor to acknowl-

following letter:

ranft for my assistance if they should

GILLEN WATERS MENDACITY.

Wright Makes the Most Aggres sive Speech of the Campaign at Trenton.

publicans to hang their heads in ye-Special to the Nashville American. ry shame and disgust at the mendac-TRENTON, TENN., Sept. 8 .- An audi ity and shameless unscrupulousness ence of four hundred was present, to day, and Judge Wright made before i of the Reverend representative of the most aggressive and forcible speech of the campaign. Wilson was the first ply contrasted the public life and speaker and delivered pretty much the same speech he has been delivering at with that of Hancock and English, other points. In reply, Judge Wright arose and the audience, almost without as they stand before the country in exception, applauded. He said he came the light of the history they have as the representative of the Democracy made. His exceriation of Gen. Garas opposed to black Republicans and field for his participation in the Pretheir allies, the bolters. He was not sidential swindle of 1876 was crush-afraid to meet Hawkins or any of his ing and convincing. His expose of bolting allies. Wilson had charged that the State-credit men had said they the civil service reform and the would vote for Hawkins before him thousands of revenue trauds indulg-Wilson). He had never heard it said. ed in by the Republican party and There was no need of that to beat Wilthe innumerable oppressions and son, for he would whip Hawkins and outrages committed upon poor men all his allies (the bolters). He ridiculed the idea that Wilson could teach him for small violations of the tobacco what was a Democratic convention, and and whisky laws was overwhelming. aid Wilson had never been a member His speech was a dignified, courteous of but one Democratic convention, and and forcible presentation of the and bolted that. He said that he had claims of Hancock and English and received a secret circular signed Horace H. Harrison, which contains the followhe fully sustained his well earned reputation as an orator of ability, "Republicans of Tennessee: The conand a conscientious, truthful gentlestantly widening rupture of the Demoman. He won the respect of Repubcratic party of Tennessee has made the licans and received the hearty apelection of the Republican candidate for Governor not only possible, but almost

The circular also says the Republicans can elect a majority of the Legislature, In his harangue last Thursday and hence a United States Senator. Gillenwaters shamelessly charged Judge Wright then said the Republicans that Gen. Hancock was influenced had yelled for Wilson at Paris and had by Southern Democrats in announce. gone away laughing in their sleeves. He then commenced a scathing review of ing the subordination of the military Wilson's legislative record, being a to the civil ambority in Louisiana in 1867. The World of the 7th pub plause. An exciting scene occurred during the lishes a letter which Gen. Hancock ejoinder. Wright charged that Wilson and introduced a bill to refund the railroad tax. Wilson said that he had not, in 1877. The riots which ensued the bill was to give the railroads credit upon the strikes of 1877, or were only, and he would not be attacked, and Carhart; wholesale grocers, Gay street, he would not attack any one else. Wright immediately arose and said he espected Wilson's lost arm as much as any one, but he would make the charges he had undertaken to make, and would not be threatered or deterred. He was responsible for what he said, and no man on earth should threaten him and tell him what he should do mand that the riots should be put wanted his attitude and record understood. Immense enthusiasm here fol-ed and enforced precisely the same view of the relation of the military in 1877 which he had announced and DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. enforced in Louisiana in 1867. He

At a convention held at Rutledge, September 6th, 1880, of the Democracy of Grainger county, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the ter company. We commend them to mecracy of Grainger and Hamblen counthe least by any consideration of ties, to be held at Turley's Mill, Sep the exigencies of politicians or of tember 17th, 1880, to nominate a candidate to represent the said counties in political parties, but solely by such the lower House of the next General a clear perception of the nature of Assembly, the following proceedings our Government and of the func-The convention was called to order by J. K. Shields, who briefly stated the bject of the meeting. hairman, and W. D. McAnally requested to act as Secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed J. H. rozier, A. H. Shields, R. B. Bundren, C. Dotson, and J. K. Shields, a committee to solect suitable persons to represent the county in the said convention to be held at Turley's Mill, on the 17th gentlemen as suitable delegates: 1st District—S. J. Jones, W. West 2d—W. S. Shields; 3d—W. H. Taylor 4th-Wm. Hopper; 5th-James James; 6th-S. S. Massengill; 7th-Samuel Stallsworth; 8th-John Perrin; 9th-J M. Mitchell; 10th-Anderson Dalton; 1th-R. B. Bundren; 12th-J N. Hil 13th-Eli Cleveland; 14th-Elijah Mul-

Which report was adopted. On motion, the Chair, Secretary and mmittee were added to the list of dele-A resolution was adopted requesting Co. go in the choicest goods to be had,

Hamblen county to have a full attendance of delegates to represent that counv in said convention There being no further buriness the onvention adjourned.

R. S. TIDWELL, Ch'm. W. D. MCANALLY, Sec'y. PERSONAL.

Judge James T. Shields, of Clinch dale, was in the city Thursday last. We are sincerely glad to see our extion to the Federal troops stationed in Sheriff, Mr. Harvey Loop, able to walk the city as would enable me to perform upon the streets again. He has about my duties. In answer he sent me the ecovered from his recent wounds The irrepressible Mexican veteran. James L. Neal, widely known in this section, is on a visit from Knoxville to this place, his old home.

Our friend, Jas. L. Cain, returned last Wednesday night to his new home in binding is handsome and durable; they edge the receipt of your communication | Bolivar county, Mississippi, accom- are as cheap as the cheapest, entirely panied by his little daughter. Mr. J. F. Austin, formerly of Grain- non-sectional, superbly illustrated, and "The United States troops were sent serving the peace. They were reported | night train for points above.

or unless they are insufficient without | Miss Ellen M. VanMeter, of Marion, the assistance of the Federal troops. Va., accompanied her sister, Mrs. John E. Helms, on her return to her home in troops on the spot is responsible for his | this place last Monday, and will remain circumstances are not of so imperative a able to attend to ordinary business du- correspond with J. W. Paulett, agent, list was the result of this letter OUR KNOXVILLE PATRONS.

shot to the front with wenderful rapid- things in hardware and cutlery. The the 17th instant, for the purpose of nomity in every line of trade in the last ten largest and handsomest stock of cutlery | inating a candidate for Representative years. She possesses number of whole- in the South can be found in their house for the two counties. Let a good man ment honor on the city and the State. dor of their line of goods prove the pre- made-and there will be no cause for To phone house does this to a greater prieters to be connoiseurs of art in their defeat. McAnally, the Republican canextent apply than to the solid old house business. Whether in the line of the didate, is said to be the weakest man of Cowan, McChung & Co., wholesale useful or in that of the ernamental, the the party could have put before the dealers in dry goods, notions, boots, latest styles and novelties will be found people. shees, hats, etc. It is hardly necessary in the immease steck of this old house, to say anything of this time-henored, and all the thousand and one articles solid establishment. It is never heard that are carried in this branch of trade, spoken of except in terms of admiration, crowd the shelves and counters until the because the founders of the house and visitor thinks sure enough he is in a their successors have, by years of up- real Palace Beautiful. right conduct and the illustration of business sagacity of the highest type, won a reputation which is co-extensive with Local Notes and Other News Southern trade. Its history is the beginning of commercial knoxville. Almost half a century ago it had its birth and has become in the Knoxville trade a landmark. Firms, once noted, have dissolved and passed away. Others, instead of enlarging their respective fields of usefulness, have gradually contracted their limits. But the old firm of Cowan, McClung & Co. have steadily moved onward and upward. Having that within them which commanded success, they have achieved it in every way in which success can be achieved in commerce. They have a very large trade throughsucceeding year, increases because the high reputation of their house for henest dealing and business capacity add new customers to the large list of old ones, and nothing is ever done to detract from that enviable reputation. The massive and magnificent brick building, feet deep, erected on the corner of Gay | drug store and Union streets, a few years ago, is filled to its utmest capacity. On the different floors may be found absolutely everything in their line of trade. They buy for cash and sell for cash. Their goods are guaranteed both as to price and quality, and no other house in the South can sell cheaper. They purchase immense supplies from manufacturers, and their stock is at all times kept supplied with the latest and best. Nothing is omitted, for long experience has enabled them to comprehend the wants of extends very largely to the Carolinas, porcine growth was slaughtered Satur-Virginia, Kentucky, Alabama, Georgia and more distant States. LEWIS & CARHART. Among the large and healthy business houses of Knoxville, Messrs. Lewis & Court, which is in session there. hold a conspicuous place in the front rank. Since their first establishment in business the house has won an enviable the public, and meet all demands. Their trade is not confined to Tennessee, but popularity with the city and country trade, and has so rapidly pressed forward that now in volume of business much to the beauty of the property. and the character of that business it deor what he should not do. He made no servedly ranks with the first in the city. personal charge against Wilson, but Possessing alarge capital, Messrs. Lewis sheriff of Hamblen county, gave the & Carhart are enabled to deal with their necessary bond and was sworn into customers liberally. They keep at all office Monday of last week. Tip will Wright will carry the county by a times a heavy stock of fancy groceries make a good officer. heavy majority. Wilson freely admits at New York prices, freight added. They that he has but little following here. possess unsurpassed facilities for supplying the trade with everything in their ine, and they are ready to fill orders, no matter how large, at short notice. They be satisfactorily transacted.

J. W. GAUT & SON.

ance with the market enables them to buy and sell at the best advantage. Col.

spare for social conversation with a visitor, and understands the art of making himself personally pleasant and agreeable to everybody. The junior member agement of the house. His motte is,

and their large and steady trade bespeak

BUTLER'S SCHOOL SERIES.

Do not fail to read the advertisement of School Books in another column of represented in the Southern States by themselves to the favorable consideration of school commissioners, teachers,

parents and friends of education, wherever their merits are known and duly

as of convenience to all concerned, we have desired to see uniformity of text books in all our schools. By a little attention to this matter on the part of teachers, commissioners, sugerinten-

dents, &c., this desirable end may be ing teachers to adopt this series. In Knox and many other counties in East

this issue. These Books published by fair and satisfactory dealing.

hands from freezing out. are agents for the Holston salt and plas-The Border Fair at Bristol opens on in Louisiana was not influenced in county in a joint convention of the De- the consideration and attention of retail Wednesday, 22d inst. We acknowledge merchants in this and adjoining States, the receipt of a season ticket from its either in person or by letter, which will attentive Secretary, Dr. J. A. Dickey.

> The display in all departments promise to be more attractive than ever before. The house of J. W. Gaut & Son, the 6th of October and continues three known, he was honored and esteemed preduce and commission merchants, days. Mr. A. B. Wilson, Secretary, has has long been one of the leading firms R. S. Tidwell was made permanent in this important branch of trade in the our thanks for a complimentary season large receivers on commission of wheat, flour, corn, oats, bacon, lard, feathers, given. dried fruit, etc. Their long acquaint-thanks for a family ticket of admission shipped to them and will make prompt J. W. Gaut, while attending strictly to to the exhibition of the Society, which and satisfactory returns. Our farmer business, and conducting it wholly on begins on the 29th instant and continues friends and merchants could not otherbusiness principles, has always time to three days. It cannot be other than a wise better themselves in making their For anything in the stove, tinware hardware or cutlery line, go or send your orders to D. P. Rowe & Co., of Mr. Robert W. Gaut, infuses a great deal of what may be very appropriately this place. They are large dealers and integrity who are well qualified to contermed "Young America" into the man- consequently can offer as great inducements as any similar house in the coun-Go shead," and anead J. W. Gaut & try.

An emigrant party from Cocke county, consisting of Sam. Fine, John Click and family, John Williams and family, Anderson Lewis and family, Wm. Williams and family, Creckett Clevenger Station, will please accept the thanks of and W. Burchfield and family, took the the GAZETTE corps for a sack of large train at this place one day last week for and superior apples. Long may be live J. H. Butler & Co. of Philadelphia are

The many friends in East Tennessee construction is strictly first-class; the serve his regained health.

> "Are you afraid to trust the people?" Well, no. We fave illustrated our faith which they have never paid, and probably never will pay-writes that emi obtained, on the basis of these excellent from some of our subscribers in regard becoming manner. publications of J. H. Butler & Co. In to the irregularity attending the recep-January last, the Second Congressional tion of their papers. This should not District Institute, held at Sweetwater, be the case. They are mailed at this We hope the postmasters will deliver them promptly to those who are alone citizens. It appears that Mr. Fain had entitled to them.

> Attention is called to the special notice in another column of Dr. W. J. Heacker, He has recently added to his large stock of medicines a variety of rooms present a splendid reflex of pre- requested by the Democracy of Grainger gress and prosperity. Their house is a | county to send delegates to a joint con Knoxville, as a wholesale market, has palace of rare, useful and beautiful vention to be held at Turley's Mill, on > him in East Tennessee, but that Col W J. Sykes will speak in his stead.

Capt. T. J. Berry was nominated on the 2nd ballot at the meeting of delogates on Monday. Captain Berry is A cold wave has struck us. Fires never failed to respend to the party call, have been necessary for comfort for the and has always been found in the front ranks to battle for the party interest. No Democrat should fail to come up and cast their vote for Capt. Berry for out the adjacent States which, with each should be put into good condition to Legislature. He deserves your votes, he has never shrunk in the hour of your need to come up to your support against enough for overcoats, and many of our the mighty .- Rogersville Spectator

Potter, the man upon whom sentence Smokers will find the very article they of death was passed by Judge Rose at want in the way of a good eigar or fine the Cocke county Circuit Court some standard equal to any read in the counfive stories high and nearly two hundred smoking tobacco at W. P. Carriger's months since, for the brutal murder of try. On some accounts it is to be re-An unknown elderly white weman a narrow thread, indeed, with the the association of Col. Cole as President was run over and killed by an eastern chances of the decision of the Circuit and general manager, we are pleased to bound freight train, on the evening of Court being confirmed by the Supreme note that our fellow-citizen is more to Court. The day for his execution is fixed on Friday, September 24.

> We are sorry to learn of the death yesterday, at the residence of his uncle, J. D. Jones, Esq., at Philadelphia, Tennessee, of Mr. Charley Williams, a young man, perhaps 31 or 22 years of age, son of Capt. S. Y. B. Williams, depet agent at Bristol. Charley was a young man of excellent traits of char acter, of fine business attainments and was liked by all who knew him. He has been connected with the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad in Sheriff, went to Knexville Monday last their depots at Bristol and Chattanooga in charge of a couple of revenue prisonfor years, but for several months past ers to answer charges before the Federal | he has been confined with consumption, and his death has been expected at most any time, - Knozville Chronicle, 10th. Charley will be remembered as a stuof his dwelling house an elegant new dent of Reagan High School in this portico, of a modern design. It is an place in 1874-5. He was highly esteem-improvement of the right kind, and adds | ed by many of our citizens, all of whom will regret sincerely to learn of his early Mr. W. H. Maze, the newly elected Hon. Gustavus A. Henry, who for years was everywhere known as the

"Eage Orator of Tennessee," died at Clarksville on Friday morning last in the 76th year of his age. His fame was WANTED AT ONCE-one hundred loads co-extensive with the Union. By his of wood from our wood subscribers. gifted elequence, elevated and forcible Please bring in your wood before cold thoughts, and the chaste and beautiful weather comes on and thus save all language that came from his lips eily tongued, he was enabled to hold his audience spell-bound for hours. On the stump he was easy, graceful, majestic, with a delivery that has seldom been equalled by the great men of the country. In private life he was the paragen of honor and all that was good, and honest and brave. In the community where The Greene County Fair begins on he lived so long, and in fact wherever

Those who may have produce conthe best exhibition the Society has ever not fail to place their articles in the hands of L. E. Hamilton & Co., whole sale produce commission merchants, Mr. James D. Slemons, Secretary of Atlants, Ga. They will obtain the the Washington county Fair, has our highest market price for all produce consignments to the Southern market than to entrust it to the care of this sterling and reliable house. The firm is composed of gentlemen of business duct their business in an honorable and satisfactory manner, as they do, and we feel no hesitancy in commending their house to the consideration of produce

Our good Democratic friend and subscriber, Mr. John Lawrence, of Talbot's to be "the apple of our eye."

We are requested to an nounce to the W. Paulett, with headquarters at of Judge John M. Carmack will be grat- public that Mrs. Lou Flynn, the popular Kuexville, Tenn. They will commend | ified to learn that he has returned to his | and reliable city milliner has a joyful home in Memphis from a somewhat pro- | message for the ladies of Merristown. tracted visit to Hot Springs, Ark., much | It is that she has made arrangements by improved physically by his sojourn. He which she will be enabled in a few days considered The material used in their the South, and returns to it only to pre- millinery stock ever brought to this city, consisting of everything beautiful that will make "woman fair and lovely to gaze upon." Her headquarters will be at her residence, opposite the Cain in the honesty and integrity, of the people for forty years by furnishing a good old friends as well as from new ones who may wish to inspect her rich assortment of millinery goods. She promises not to be undersold in any article in her nently patriotic and level-headed philo line and guarantees satisfaction in every sopher and statesman, Mr. Sam. P. Ivins. bill of sale. Ladies, now is the "accepted time," call on Mrs. Flynn and We are continually hearing complaints get her to rig you out in a pretty and

> Mr. Joseph Fain, who was seriously injured at Knexville last week, by be ing run over by a train, was farmerly a clerk at the Commercial House in this city, and was well known to many of our Atkin House, on the night of the acci-dent, and it being nearly train time when he left, he concluded he would wait till the 'buss came down to the depot and return in it to the city. While til now their capacious and magnificent. The Hamblen county Democracy is MEMPHIS AND THE TENNESSEE NON-SECRET MEDICINES FOR AND VIRGINIA CONSOLL DATION.

Sunday's Memphis Appeal: "At last the Mississippi is to be united to the Atlantic by a continuous line of railroad from Memphis to Norfolk under one sale houses that reflect in their manage- at Knexville, and the variety and splen- be nominated — a judicious selection preparation for this event Col. Cote has bottle or package; put up in bandsoms ordered 13,000 tons or steel rails to be delivered this fall and next spring, so left long; nice paper engraved, enamand Norfolk grand trunk railroad will be in as good condition as the Pennsylvanis road, which challenges thoadmiration of all whe ride over it. New We know our friends in Cocke county | combination iron bridges have also been | claim for them as absolute specifics, and will give Judge Guild a rousing audi- ordered and a very large addition to the ence at Newport. He is to speak there rolling stock. To the very conservanext Saturday, the 18th. Let the peo- McGhee, and the financial skill of Mr. ple of the county welcome the eld vet- R. T. Wilson, is due a result that the eran. He will bring them wisdom and greatest of the railroad managers of the good cheer. P. S .- Since the above was | country-Cel. Tem Scott-contemplated put in type, we are notified that ewing life. Passing through the most poputo ill-health Judge Guild will not be lous and wealthiest of the southern able to fill the appointments made for States, and fed by many intersecting lines from the Ohio, the gulf and the Atlantic coasts, this great read must in time become one of the most important in the union, certainly the most imper-

tant in the south.

The above we clip frem the Nashville American. The meed of praise awarded well known to the Democrats of this to our fellow-townsman, Col. McGhee, county. He has always been an enthu- will be read with pleasure by his host of siastic and consistent worker. He has friends in our city. His management of the Wilson & McGhee system of roads has shown him one of the ablest railroad managers that the south has produced, and while he has, by his conservative and skillful course, absolutely saved the Memphis & Charleston railroad from bankruptcy and the stockholders from a total loss of their proper ty, the public have been amply provided for and well served. On our own home line he has brought the same up to a of Knoxville, Tenn. McMahan, near Newport, was taken to gretted that Col. McGhee has determin-Knoxville last Monday by the Sheriff of ed to retire from the personal active that county, to appear before the United | management of the line, as his marked States Supreme Court, he having taken success in the past would have pointed an appeal to this tribunal as his last re- te great results in the future. But he has, as it acems, determined to lead a sort for life. Potter's life hangs upon life of more ease and comfert, and since be seen on our streets. His connection with the roads in an official capacity still continues, but with greatly reduced labor and responsibility. - Knozville

POPULAR USE.

Quack, Secret or Patent Medicines Replaced By Popular forms of Non-Secret Medicines

shape, using good glass, velvet corks eled tinted wrappers; special circulars, ample directions in four languages; excellent printing, and convenient retail sizes. I put them up from good prescriptions and material, without any avowedly to replace quack, secret or patented nostrums. Having a complete line of medicines, such as are in popular demand

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL SANFFARIUM sept 8-tw Morristown, Tenn

A good lot of men's and boys clothing will be sold for 10 per cent off to make room for new goods. We will buy all the wheat offered. Van Hum & BRO.

Called Meeting

STOCKHOLDERS

Enoxville, Tenn., Sept. 1, 1880.

Mile of the state of the second TO THE STOCKHOLDERS

There will be a called masting of the stockhold ers of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company, 1860 at their office in the city At 12 O' Clock, Wednesday, the Sixth Day of October, 1880.

Stockholders wishing to attend said meeting will be passed on this road, in accordance wit resolution of the stockholders, passed deptembe

New Advertisements

E. HAMILTON & CO.,

Commission Merchants. 26 West Alabama Street,

ATLANTA. . GA. REFERENCES-W. M. & R. J. Lowry, Bankers, Atlanta, Ga; John H. James, Banker, Atlanta, Ga.; Perino Brown, Pres't Citizens Bank; Paul Romare, Cashier Atlanta Nat. Bank.

Lewis & Carhart, GROCERS

KNOXVILLE, TENN.

We have unsurpassed facilities for supplying the trade with

STAPLE & FANCY GROCERIES. At New York prices-freight added.

AGENTS FOR HOLSTON SALT AND PLASTER CO. city of Knoxville. They are especially ticket. It is predicted that this will be signments to make in the South should LENOIR'S and ROCKFORD YARNS

Plenty of Storage Room. Orders by mail carefully and promptly attended to. sugt to ly

CONDON BROS., Wholesale Grocers.

Keep Constantly on Hand the Largest Stock of

STAPLE AND FANCY

WE CARRY A FULL STOCK OF

considers Memphis the healthiest city in to open the choicest and most elegant Grain Bag's and all kinds of Field Seeds Headquarters for

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

BARTON'S

The most Varied & Elegant Stock we have ever Shown

DRESS GOODS, SILKS.

Hosiery, Gloves, and Fancy Goods of all Descriptions. waiting for the 'buss he walked up the railroad a short distance. He says he heard a train behind him, which he sup-Sheetings, Pillow Casings, Counterpanes, Towels, Napline, and all House-keeping Goods, Carpets, Mattings, Rugs, Oil Cloths, Cornices and Curtain Good. Carpets made and laid.

Full Stock of Gent's and Boy's Shirts, Socks, Collars, Cravata, &c., Children's Knit Suits in Cassimere and Linen -- 2 to 10 years.

"ANKER" BOLTING CLOTHS.

New Goods received every day. Orders by mail promptly attended wa Roxville, Tenn. ALVIN BARTON.